Moving from Prague to London at the age of 20, Maella started a period of sonic reinvention. This led her to develop her own production skills, and refine her dark alt-pop sound to much acclaim. All of her songs from the EP 'Slow Burn' have been played on BBC Introducing London, with Jess Iszatt 'falling in love' with her 'stunning' sound, and provided her with a BBC introducing Featured Artist slot. Maella was October's (2022) ambassador for Spotify Equals CZ&SK, receiving placement at Times Square. Closing 2022 with a European tour supporting a Warner-signed artist, 2023 she starts the year with being shortlisted in the top 5 of Czechia's national selection for Eurovision, and landing a sync on the Netflix reality show 'Love is Blind.'
